For A Cure Foundation Gala Dinner at Wildfire

For A Cure Foundation celebrated its official launch at Wildfire Sydney with 'Fashion on Fire' which was proudly supported by Event Buddies Australia, Camilla Franks and Cosmopolitan Shoes.

Over 200 guests attended the decadent three course sit down gala dinner to raise funds for Cancer Stem Cell Research in Australia hosted by the Daily and Sunday Telegraph's Melissa Hoyer, with special guest Paulini from Australian Idol.

The evening commenced with guests greeted by fire performers & stunning models in leopard print Camilla Kaftans. The venue was themed with an array of red lights, red carpet runway, red velvet lounges, a 3 meter red inflated media ball and a red Maserati Granturismo in the forefront of the opera house and Harbour Bridge.

Camilla showcased her spring-summer 2010 collection for the first time to the public following Australian Fashion Week with a runway show at the event with guests being able to bid on each of the garments in a silent auction to raise funds for the foundation.

Additional auction items at the event include a Balenciaga Handbag generously donated by Rose Ghosn of Cosmopolitan Shoes, a signed David Beckham T-shirt, Mohammad Ali signed boxing gloves, a day out on Sydney Harbour with six friends to the value of $5,000 donated by Sydney Boating Club; and any five items from Camilla's collection to choose from including fabulous one offs.

Guests continued on until the early hours of the morning at the Ivy Pool Bar. Paulini from Australian Idol at the end of the night jumped back on stage and entertained while patrons danced on the red carpet runway till close, a fabulous night had by all.

Brigitte, Can you tell us a bit about your background? I moved from Wagga Wagga to Sydney two years ago to Study Marketing and Events and living in the Eastern Suburbs.

How and why did you become an Event Buddy? I was approached by Penelope Stewart to become an Event Buddy. She knew I worked as a model for Camilla and was keen to have me on board. What's your daily occupation? I am currently working in Retail in Bondi while studying full time and some casual modeling.

What is amazing about Event Buddies? It is a great team who are great to work for and also do a lot of high end Foundation focused events, such as Fashion on Fire with Paulini and Camilla Franks.

What value would you add to an event? I am outgoing, energetic, reliable, trustworthy and love meeting new people. I am able to contribute and help people with whatever they need at the event.
